

Ready to start your career in due diligence?

Vcheck University (Vcheck U) is a full-time, paid training program that equips you with hands-on education in a supportive environment to accelerate your career in today's dynamic background screening industry across our company's key teams.

Through a combination of in-depth training and mentorship opportunities, we empower you to excel, make a real impact, and build a fulfilling career at Vcheck.

See below for some more details about these exciting opportunities:

Sales Development Representative

OVERVIEW

As a Sales Development Representative (SDR), you'll be a key player in our lead generation game, connecting businesses with Vcheck's powerful background screening solutions. You'll get in-depth training to master the ropes, but that's just the beginning.

You'll also work together with teammates (both senior and lateral) to guide you and help you develop the communication and sales skills that are crucial for career success. It's a chance to make a real impact, gain valuable experience, and build a fulfilling path at Vcheck – all with the support you need to thrive.

HIRING

Recruiting classes of SDRs in the Spring

Due Diligence Investigations

OVERVIEW

Crave the thrill of uncovering the truth? Vcheck's Due Diligence Investigator role is your chance to be a business world Sherlock Holmes. You'll dig deep, researching individuals and companies through public records, legal documents, and social media. Your keen eye will analyze complex information, verify identities, and confirm employment and education histories. This role is perfect for a curious, detail-oriented individual who thrives on puzzles and delivering clear, reliable insights to clients.

We provide a robust training program that spans almost 6 weeks split between asynchronous self-study, classroom training, and test cases. A dedicated learning and development manager that guides you every step of the way.

HIRING

Year round

Vcheck Investigations Analysts

OVERVIEW

Intrigued by the world of pre-investment and pre-IPO investigations? This analyst role is your chance to join a brand-new program at Vcheck. Our VI team tackles due diligence on a global scale, so if you're a bilingual whiz with a passion for investigative work, this could be your perfect fit! We provide a comprehensive training program – nearly two months of classroom learning and practical exercises – to ensure you're equipped for success from day one. It's an exciting pathway to launch your investigations career, all with the support of a top-notch team.

HIRING

Year-round

FAQ

How can I apply to Vcheck U?

Keep an eye on our careers page for the latest job openings or email us at recruiting@vcheckglobal.com to share your resume.

What sets Vcheck University apart from other training programs?

Vcheck U goes beyond traditional training. We offer a supportive environment where you'll learn alongside experienced professionals who will guide you every step of the way. Plus, our comprehensive curriculum is designed to equip you with the real-world skills you need to succeed in the background screening industry.

What are the career growth opportunities after completing Vcheck U?

Vcheck U is just the beginning! Upon successful completion, you'll be well-positioned for exciting career opportunities within Vcheck. We offer a variety of growth paths across different departments, allowing you to leverage your newfound skills and explore your interests.